Lesson Fees and Payment Information

- Registration Fee -- $20 (includes book and other course materials)
- 30 min. private lessons --
 - Semester (15 lessons) - $375 ($25 per lesson) OR two payments of $200 (due 8/18 and 10/1)
- Lessons must be paid in cash, check or money order. You must commit to the entire semester; if student withdraws, the lessons fees are non-refundable.
- The semester plan will include 15 lessons, to accommodate for holidays and pre-approved absences. If no lessons are missed and you would like to add to the 15 scheduled lessons, you may do so at the same semester rate ($25 per lesson).
- Cancellations must be made 24 hours in advance, except in cases of extreme emergency. Any classes cancelled less than 24 hours of class will not be made up, including illness, the lesson time will be honored by the instructor unless it can be filled in time by another student.
- Make-up lessons must be rescheduled during the same semester in which they were missed. Advance notice must be given in order for lessons to be rescheduled, as listed above. Lessons will not roll over to the upcoming semester. If make-up lesson is not rescheduled within the semester, the tuition for the lesson will not be refunded. Exceptions will only be made if lesson was cancelled at instructors request and could not be rescheduled.

Student Expectations

- Students are expected to have instruments in good working order and all materials for class at each lesson.
- Students are expected to be on time for their lessons; any tardiness will not be made-up. Please wait quietly outside of the lesson room until your time, other students are still learning! If a student is more than 10 minutes late, the instructor reserves the right to leave if there are no other students, please call if you are very late.
- Students are expected to practice at least one hour per week total outside of lessons. It is important to develop and maintain finger strength and toughness, especially during the early stages of learning. Students not showing appropriate progress due to lack of practice may be expelled at the instructor's discretion.
